Police team cut despite town seeing rise in crime

DORCHESTER'S police team have been cut by almost 20 per cent – at a time when overall crime is rising in the town and the population growing.

The number of hours which the Weymouth Avenue police station is open to the public has also been cut back and CCTV cameras are no longer monitored around the clock.

Six out of 36 posts have been moved out of the county town with some officers being transferred to Poole and Bournemouth.

To the end of March overall crime in Dorchester rose year-on-year by 3.5 per cent – an extra 69 victims compared to the year before. Less than two thirds of the town's reported crime results in a conviction or other finding of guilt.

Incidents of violence rose by 23 per cent during the year – 28 additional victims. The category includes common assault, harassment and sexual offences.

Also on the rise are cases of shoplifting.

Councillor Viv Allan, who sits on the town's Crime Prevention Panel, said she was worried about the reduction in police numbers in the town. In the past she has said at town council meetings that she is not happy being out late in the town on her own.

"I am most concerned about crimes against the person, street crime, and I am worried about how quickly officers can get to an incident to stop it getting worse. It's obviously a cause for concern if there are fewer officers around."

But local police Inspector Steve Marsh said that compared to many other towns the level of crime remains low and most people are unlikely to be affected by crime, but also said it has to be recognised that

by Trevor Bevins

Dorchester is becoming more lively at night.

Addressing councillors at a recent full town council meeting, Inspector Marsh said: "The town has changed considerably, the footfall has increased and we now have more licensed premises and a more active night time economy. We now have two licensed premises staying open until 4am and several who are open to 1am."

The biggest percentage rise was a 78 per cent increase in sexual offences from 28 the previous year to 50. But Inspector Marsh told councillors that it appeared most of this increase was down to two individuals both of which were in the process of being dealt with by police.

There is some good news in the statistics – residential and commercial burglary offences fell by around 15 per cent as did robberies. Theft of vehicles reduced by six per cent although thefts from vehicles increased slightly.

Inspector Marsh said 88 per cent of victims of crime say they were happy with the way police dealt with the situation.

"While there is room to improve I think that, given the challenging situations we are often asked to resolve, the feedback suggests we get it right most of the time with 94 per cent of respondents being happy with their first contact with local officers."

He told town councillors that despite the increase in late-night drinking, a look at the figures showed that there were no "hot spots" or problem premises.

● WHY do you live in Dorchester?

I think it is a nice place and I enjoy it there. It is a market town with a beautiful character.

● WHERE do you go for your holidays?

Spain, Greece, the usual places. Last year it was Kenya. I like the Greek islands best because of the laid back approach to life that they have.

● WHAT is your favourite time of the year?

Summer because you can get outside and the days are longer.

● WHAT is your favourite film?

Braveheart because it has a little bit of everything in it from romance to violence and it really appeals to me.

● WHAT is the scariest thing that has ever happened to you?

I was driving through woodland near Dorchester when a stag suddenly ran out in front of my car and I hit it. My car was a write-off but the deer just walked away leaving me sat there shaking.

● IF you could live your life again what would you be?

I would like to be a physiotherapist because I would like to rehabilitate people such as stroke victims. I feel that would be very satisfying.

● WHICH three people would you invite to your dream dinner party?

I would invite Brad Pitt because he is so ugly...I don't think! I would also invite King Henry VIII to see if I could keep my head and David Beckham because he is very good looking and an iconic sportsman.

● WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

I would buy a really nice house, give some money to certain friends, help my children's future and have a lot of holidays.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

● WHAT do you hope the future holds?

Happiness because the last year has been rubbish and I feel happiness is very important.

Does Dorchester care about turbine plans?

“WAKE up Dorchester” – that’s the message from anti wind turbine campaigners to the county town.

The group, which is opposing plans for turbines off Slyer’s Lane to the north of Dorchester town centre, say they will be clearly visible, and possible heard, from many north-facing roads both in Dorchester itself and Poundbury.

Yet spokesman Keith Simmons said there had been little concern, or interest, from many Dorchester residents to the proposals for what he describes as “industrial-scale” turbines each approaching 370 feet tall.

Broadview, the company behind the proposals for six turbines of 115metres each, claims that public opinion is roughly 60 to 40 in favour of the development.

Tom Cosgrove, Development Manager at Broadview Energy, said in Dorchester this week that the proposed turbines had been reduced from seven to six and from 125metres to 115metres as a result of feedback from the public.

“It’s all about the right balance. We need to generate as much electricity as we can from the site while taking local views into account. We believe we now have the right balance, but we are still consulting local people so it could change again.”

Mr Cosgrove also said he believed that by having the turbines close to the area where the power will be used it gave a positive statement about renewable energy.

He also revealed that local people will be offered the chance to buy shares in the development.

The application for the site is expected to be submitted within the next three months.

Mr Simmons said at one of the exhibitions held by the company last week that he was surprised people in Dorchester and Poundbury had been so apathetic towards the proposals.

“They need to wake up to what is happening...they will be clearly seen from large parts of Dorchester and Poundbury. People don’t seem to grasp just how big they are. To have these industrial scale turbines in Hardy country is indefensible.”

In a statement issued by the No Slyers

Lane Turbines group they claim that the UK has already reached its EU-set target for renewable energy.

“The only justifiable reason for building these turbines here is financial gain.”

The campaign group, which is mainly funded by individual donations, has paid for photomontages of what the turbines might look like as part of its campaign to raise awareness.

Meetings held to discuss town’s traffic problems

A SERIES of meetings are being held to come up with an alternative solution to Dorchester’s traffic problems.

County council proposals were largely rejected at a series of meetings last year with residents complaining that they would push too much traffic onto some streets to ease pollution in High East and High West Streets.

Unless the town can come up with a workable alternative millions of pounds of county council money, set aside for the project, will be lost.

Dozens of Dorchester people have now offered to work with local councillors to find a solution – with meetings being held on June 26th and July 3rd.

A separate meeting will be held with Dorchester Business Improvement District and Chamber of Commerce members.

Parking system to be trialed

NUMBER plate recognition will be used at a trial scheme for pay on exit parking in a Dorchester car park.

The technology will mean that drivers who register to use the system will not need to go to a machine to pay for parking.

The pilot scheme, thought to be the first in the country, is due to be installed in the coming weeks at the Wollaston Field car.

Council criticised for ‘wishy-washy’ approach over future of jail

WEST Dorset District Council has been criticised for its “wishy-washy” approach to the future of the closed Dorchester Prison site.

The town’s Civic Society has come up with a vision for the five-acre town centre prison while the district council is still considering whether or not they should issue a “concept statement”.

Town councillors heard that when Reading’s jail was closed, at the same time as Dorchester, the council there had come up with a plan for the site by February.

Councillor Molly Rennie said that what was expected by the town was leadership from the district council.

“A concept statement sounds very wish-washy to me...I’m not quite sure how strong a concept statement will be when a developer comes along and makes an offer,” she said.

The town’s Civic Society told the town council planning committee that it’s ideas for the site included a small public park, with a promenade, to the north of the site; a mix of high quality and affordable housing and integration of the site with other historical attractions nearby.

Chairman Alan Rowley said the site’s main problem was that the only access was via North Square although walking access might be able to be improved using a slither of land belonging to the prison into Glyde Path Road.

Mr Rowley said: “It won’t be another Brewery Square but it needs to be integrated with other historical assets. It should have ‘a sense of place’ and be distinctive.”

“We should look for the retention of at least part of the Victorian prison building subject to a suitable use being found.”

The committee heard that the former Oxford Jail had been partly converted into an hotel.

Mr Rowley also backed West Dorset District Council adopting a proactive approach with any developer working to a masterplan after consultation with local people.

The district council’s Planning and Urban Design Officer, Jan Farnan, said that in general terms district council officers agreed with most of what the Civic Society had to say about the site. She also agreed, in response to questioning, that the district council had identified the site as a potential location for housing.

Town councillors have backed the idea of working with the Civic Society and the district council to come up with firm ideas for what would be acceptable on the site.

“We want something as firm and strong as possible so that wriggle room for any developer is limited. This is a very significant site for the town,” said Councillor Andy Canning.

Police launch summer drink drive campaign

DORSET Police's summer drink and drug drive campaign started this week and will last for the next two months.

This year, for the first time, the force has extended its summer campaign to run throughout July to coincide with the 2014 FIFA World Cup, which takes place from June 12th and July 13th, and will end on July 31st.

Following the force's successful 2013 Christmas drink and drug drive campaign, Dorset Police will again be releasing the names and court appearances of all those charged with a drink and drug drive-related offence throughout the campaign.

Custody images of those convicted could also be released to the media.

Inspector Matt Butler, from Dorset Police's Traffic Unit, said: "Every year we warn people of the dangers of drink driving but some still choose to get behind the wheel after consuming alcohol, putting themselves and the lives of others at risk.

"During our summer campaign anyone who chooses to have a blatant disregard for the law by drinking and driving will not only face a fine, be disqualified from driving and have a criminal record – they risk having their name and photograph released to the media.

"I have seen far too many lives lost on the roads due to drink driving. Research has shown that even one drink can impair the ability to drive so please don't get behind the wheel after drinking any alcohol at all.

"We want everyone in Dorset to enjoy the summer months and the football World Cup but we also want people to remain safe. Risking people's lives because you wanted to have a drink and then drive will simply not be tolerated."

Dorset Police is warning motorists that throughout the campaign there will be an increase in traffic patrols and roadside checks.

Every driver who is involved in a collision during this period will be breath tested, irrespective of whether they are suspected of drink driving or not.

If someone is caught drink driving they will face a minimum 12 month driving ban, a criminal record, up to six months in prison and a fine of up to £5,000.

The force will also use information submitted by the public to target suspected offenders of drink and drug driving throughout the campaign.

Inspector Matt Butler added: "If a member of the public suspects someone is driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs, they should dial 999 immediately and report the details to the police so that we can intercept that vehicle."

Dorset Police will be taking to Twitter to remind motorists of the drink and drug drive campaign and to inform the public how many drivers have been charged each day. Follow @dorsetpolice and look out for #DPSummerDrinkDrive.

If you suspect someone is driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs, dial 999 immediately so police can intercept or call 101 with non-urgent information.

Recycling rates up with new service

DORSET'S recycling rate has increased by six per cent since a new collection service was launched, according to figures from the Dorset Waste Partnership (DWP).

Dorset recycled 54 per cent of its waste from kerbside collections and recycling centres in 2013/14, up from 49 per cent in 2012/13.

Two thirds of Dorset households now have the kerbside collection - the latest for part of West Dorset which started in March.

Another 50,000 properties in Weymouth and Portland and West Dorset will switch to the scheme in October, followed by the rest of West Dorset next year.

The aim of introducing kerbside recycling across the county is to increase Dorset's recycling to 68 per cent and drive down costs by £2million a year.

Around 30,000 households have also paid for an optional, fortnightly garden waste collection.

The total amount of Dorset's waste sent to landfill last year was 23 per cent, down from 26 per cent in 2012/13. In addition, 18 per cent of Dorset's waste was sent for either mechanical biological treatment, where further recycling is extracted, or to produce electricity.

Councils currently pay £80 in tax for every tonne of waste sent to landfill. Including gate fees, it costs £1,060 for a dustcart to dump 10 tonnes of rubbish in landfill, compared to an income of £127 for the same amount of recycling.

In a recent survey of 5,000 residents using the new service, 89 per cent said they were satisfied with it and 74 per cent said it was an improvement on their previous service.

Steve Burdis, Director of the Dorset Waste Partnership, said: "Thanks to residents enthusiastically using their new collection service to do their bit, Dorset is recycling more than ever.

"This means we are keeping more waste out of expensive landfill sites and recovering value from useful resources rather than burying them in the ground.

"Recycling is a way of life in Dorset. These figures suggest that having one, easy-to-use service can help us become one of the best areas for recycling in the country."

District council should do more to improve East Street, says resident

A DORCHESTER man who has fought to improve High East Street says he fails to understand why local councils have not been doing more for the street.

Alan Keel has badgered West Dorset District Council to take enforcement action over businesses which have flouted planning laws and repeatedly asked the district to take action against owners over the poor state of repair of their buildings.

On Monday evening he asked Dorchester Town Council planners to ask why they had backed approval for two shop signs which breach planning guidelines.

But he praised some firms who he said were trying to breathe life into the street, especially those at the bottom end who he said had created their businesses in a tasteful way.

"It's the main entrance to the town and the district council are fond of telling us that it has the most listed buildings for a street of its size of anywhere else in the country...which makes you wonder why it's down to me to make a fuss and get it improved," he said.

Mr Keel took up his battle after moving into the street two years ago, fearing for the worst when businesses started closing.

Over time he had repeatedly visited the district council and persuaded them to use their powers to get boarding-

by Trevor Bevins

up materials removed from closed shops and to issue repair notices to landlords.

Advertising signs at the Polish Shop and a take-away business are also being investigated for what Mr Keel describes as their "horrible signs" and which are now the subject of retrospective planning permissions.

Councillor Andy Canning praised Mr Keel for taking the issues up and continuing to push to get things done. He admitted that, with hindsight, the town council may have made a mistake in backing one of the shop sign applications.

He said that talks had been held in the past with the Dorchester Business Improvement District and Chamber of Commerce to try and improve the street, but the idea did not get backing.

"Perhaps now is the time to have another crack at it and try and pull it all together," he said, promising to put the issue on the town's Heritage Committee agenda next month.

He said he welcomed the news that the district council was now taking the issues more seriously and using its enforcement powers.

Bus campaign meeting

A PUBLIC meeting is being held in Martinstown tonight (Wednesday 4th) over the campaign to persuade First Bus to reverse changes to their 31 service through the village.

Dorchester councillor Andy Canning told a meeting on Monday: "The justification to make the changes from First has altered over time – people find that frustrating.

"These changes do impact on people in Dorchester as well...we are not giving up yet."

But he said that alternatives such as "dial a bus" and using community volunteer drivers was also being looked at.

The route changes mean a reduction in buses through Martinstown, Preston and Littlemoor during the day.

Dorchester's Mayor, Councillor Peter Mann, is to write to First and again ask them to re-consider.

Still no site found for new recycling centre

A LACK of progress over finding a new household recycling centre form Dorchester is being highlighted by the town council.

The town's centre, at St George's Road, is considered too small to cope with future demand. It may also be needed by Wessex Water for an extension to the town's sewage works to cope with Dorchester's growing population.

Town planners heard on Monday that any potential site for a household recycling centre at Poundbury was likely to be withdrawn – leaving Dorchester with no alternative site.

Councillors are to urge the district and county council to step up their efforts to identify an alternative option.

Town council reject Stratton House development plans

PLANS for new homes at the former district council headquarters in Dorchester have been rejected by town councillors.

Despite welcoming the concept of apartments at Stratton House councillors heard that a lack of a masterplan for the whole site was causing difficulties in getting to grips with the overall development. There were also concerns about the lack of affordable housing.

The town planning committee was considering an application for 16 apartments in the main building with two offices on the ground floor and an application for five new homes in the former car park to the rear.

Planning officer Louise Dowell said that the developers were restoring rooms to their original size as much as possible and would be closing the second and third floor links to the adjoining Shire Hall. The existing lift in the building would also be removed.

Councillor Fiona Kent-Ledger said: "This is a really good use and should be applauded. The developers haven't tried to cram more in and they are treating the building with respect."

But despite praise for the concept town councillors recommended rejection of the two applications because of concerns over the lack of a masterplan, worries over what was seen as inadequate open space, lack of affordable housing and possible overdevelopment with the new properties to the rear of the building.

"Without a masterplan it is impossible to protect what the site will look like as a whole," said Councillor Molly Rennie.

An application for the adjoining building, Shire Hall, was approved to include a new visitor centre for the Tolpuddle Martyrs Court with education rooms and a shop, a new Tourist Information Office and two apartments on the top floor. Six parking spaces will be provided to the rear of the building.

Odeon popular with cinema goers

DORCHESTER'S Odeon cinema is claiming a 45per cent increase in audience numbers – the highest percentage growth in the group.

The cinema puts the figures down to the variety of content shown on its big screen, which includes live broadcasts of National Theatre, Royal Ballet and Royal Opera House productions as well as the latest movies.

It has also had to compete with Dorchester's long-established and well supported Plaza, by reducing ticket prices.

Odeon says the live broadcast of the National Theatre's production of War Horse in February proved to be one of the most popular screenings, with more than 420 people watching the production in the cinema's three screens.

Alan Escott, general manager at ODEON Dorchester, says: "We would like to thank our customers for their loyal support.

"We aim to provide a first-class cinema experience at a competitive price and we are pleased that this is being received extremely well by those living in Dorchester and the surrounding communities.

Concerns raised over future of pathology lab services in Dorset

CONCERNS are again being raised over the proposed move of pathology lab services at the Dorset County Hospital (DCH) to Taunton.

The recently formed Dorset Health Campaign, says it is also concerned that the service may be handed to a private company without adequate consultation.

Dorchester member of the campaign group Sally Cooke says: "The group is looking for answers to the following questions - Firstly, about transparency - who is checking the specification for the new service on behalf of hospital users? I understand that the hospital trust's governors are not consulted, so who is?"

"Secondly, about the future quality of the service - how do we know the public will still get a good (timely, and high quality) service if the path lab should go private? And what redress is there if a private provider delivers a poor service? We are also concerned about the loss of local employment and skills."

Bridport councillor Ros Kayes, a founder member of the campaign group, who sits on the Dorset Health Scrutiny Committee at Dorset County Council has expressed her concerns.

"A report was brought to committee recently showing that the existing service at DCH had been prevented from tendering at all for the new service, because it was involved in drawing up the specification.

"Although I am told that should no other tender be successful, the DCH lab will be considered, I fear this will almost certainly rule our own, perfectly acceptable, lab from the equation - and also cost local jobs."

The group is asking the health trust to respond to their concerns.

Students brighten up flower festival

■ KINGSTON Maurward College Floristry students at St Giles Church Flower Festival

FLORISTRY students from Kingston Maurward College on the outskirts of Dorchester travelled to Devon to create a special display of royal wedding flowers.

The students joined in the Festival of Flowers which takes place in the ancient church of St Giles in Sidbury every seven years.

This year's festival theme was entitled: "1914 - A Hundred Years On", bringing together all parts of the local community to celebrate in floral art.

Kingston Maurward College's level three floristry students designed and researched royal wedding bouquets through the past hundred years, which included designing and constructing replica bridal designs ranging from those of Queen Elizabeth through to Kate Middleton.

The students also created pedestals and historical garlands to celebrate royal weddings of the past.

The festival raises funds for the upkeep of the historical church, and to provide donations for Royal British Legion and Sidbury Church of England Primary School.

Floristry Student, Kate Woolley, said: "The flower festival was an excellent opportunity for us to work in a different location, deciding how to display our floral work in the church, while working with the local flower ladies and seeing their work alongside ours. It was a fantastic transformation of the church."

Car park signs inaccurate

DORSET County Council is to be asked to explain why Dorchester's new car park signs do not appear to be working well.

Town councillors say the numbers given for car park vacancies on the new digital signs are often wrong. "They have not been working well for a long time. There's been poor communication from Dorset County Council. They should be explaining what is going on rather than us have to badger them," he told a town council meeting on Monday night.

Museum gets arts status

DORSET County Museum has been accredited after reaching the standards set by the Arts Council.

The award is only given to museums reaching a set of nationally agreed standards including meeting users' needs and expectations, making improvements and working with other organisations.

The status is valid for three years.

"We are very proud to have achieved the high standards necessary for Arts Council Accreditation," said Jon Murden, Director of Dorset County Museum.

"To improve the museum even further, we are now working on a major new project which will result in the complete redisplay of our Archaeology Gallery - this will be a fantastic new resource for all our visitors and especially for our local residents, members and supporters."

Thefts from vans plague police

THEFTS from vans continue to trouble police in Dorchester.

The town has been hit by a spate of similar incidents for months. The latest victim was the owner of a Vauxhall Combi van was parked in the High Street, Fordington. The offender forced the rear doors to gain entry and then stole tools.

Other thefts in the town include sheds being broken into at Herringston Road allotments and a welder and generator stolen from an insecure garage in London Road.

The town's Safer Neighbourhood Team is asking anyone with information to contact the Dorset Police on 101.

Get walking!

A JOINT walk with the Ramblers and the local Walking for Health Group has been held in the Dorchester area - led Sue Blake.

The Get Walking Week event saw walkers brave rain to catch the bus to Martinstown and then make their way back to the county town across permissive paths and public rights of way. The walkers were rewarded by tea at The Cafe on the Green.

'Weatherbury Farm' opens to public

MADE in Chelsea star Francis Boule will open the gardens at Waterston Manor this Sunday, June 8th, to raise money for the group opposing plans for wind turbines near Tolpuddle.

The privately owned gardens and house, which are not usually open to the public, were Bathsheba Everdene's Weatherbury Farm in Hardy's Far from the Madding Crowd - published 140 years ago.

The event will also feature talks and stalls for food and arts and craft as well a live music, a bouncy castle, fun dog show and cream teas.

Katherine Butler of Waterston Manor and a leading campaigner against the wind farms, said: "It is time to put an end to the feeding frenzy by developers and landowners who rush to destroy our landscape in an attempt to cash in on the windfall from Government subsidiaries.

"I am determined to prevent the destruction of our beautiful countryside in a misguided solution to our energy needs.

"This destruction will continue until there is a considered policy on the location of renewable projects."

The gardens will be open between 10am and 4pm and are at Waterston Manor, Lower Waterston, near Puddletown DT2 7SP.

Florists scoop prizes at competition

KINGSTON Maurward floristry students Emily Moore and Laura Bettany have scooped second and third places in a regional award.

The South West regional heat of UK Skills Floristry competition was hosted by the college for the fourth year running.

Against the clock competitors produced a shoulder corsage with materials selected by the judges, together with a modern floral arrangement.

A third design was produced at home and staged on arrival at the heat - a planted design under the title "A Wedding Anniversary".

Course Tutor, Tracey Nadin, said: "We are very proud of our five students who entered the competition this year.

"All produced excellent designs and were professional throughout. It's such a great opportunity for them to showcase their talents."

Ford Farm are the big cheese at awards

DORSET-based dairy, Ford Farm has won 13 medals, including four golds, at the British Cheese Awards 2014.

The Litton Cheney farm, near Dorchester, was one of 178 cheesemakers across the UK to enter the awards which took place at its new home, the Royal Bath & West Show, for the first time this year.

The British Cheese Awards which are the most prestigious awards on the British cheese calendar and attracted in excess of 1,000 entries.

The highest accolade was awarded to farm's latest product, Cave Aged Goat's Cheddar. Launched exclusively as a Tesco Finest brand, this variety, which is made by hand on the farm from premium goat's milk and then matured 200 feet underground in the Wookey Hole Caves, was voted the overall Champion Supermarket Cheese.

Vintage Cave Aged Cheddar, an 18 month matured traditional West Country Farmhouse Cheddar, aged at Wookey Hole, also achieved a gold medal.

Two smoked cheese varieties made by the farm, Dorset Red and Billie's Smokey Goat were both awarded Gold in the "Flavour Added" category.

The farm also won the overall best packaging award for its English cheese selection pack as well as a Silver for its waxed cheddar truckle.

The product development team won bronze medals for two flavour innovations conceived and developed earlier this year exclusively for export to the USA - a Wensleydale with White Chocolate and Raspberry as well as a Wensleydale with Strawberries and Cream.

Mike Pullin, Director at Ford Farm said: "It's all down to a fantastically skilled and dedicated team at the farm."

"Thanks, of course go to our cheesemakers, who produce so many different varieties of cheese to such a consistently high standard. But we are also indebted to our talented product development team who have this year really proved themselves to be genuine innovators in flavours and packaging."

Volunteers walk for cricket club funds

CERNE Valley Cricket Club volunteers will be taking on a 30-mile walk this weekend – dropping in at other clubs en route.

The challenge will take place this Sunday (June 8th) and will see 11 volunteers visiting the cricket grounds at Cattistock, Charlton Down, and Cheselbourne before heading back to Cerne Abbas along the Wessex Way via the Dorset Gap.

The aim is to achieve a minimum of £1,500 in sponsorship for Cerne Valley Cricket Club as part of the CV11 campaign to raise funds to improve the playing facilities. It is hoped that the cricket square will be re-laid following a successful fund raising campaign.

Each walker is aiming to raise £100 pounds towards the total.

Cerne Valley Cricket Club was established at Simsay Field, Cerne Abbas, in 1984 to serve the community of the valley and surrounding area. Now 30 years on, and flourishing with seven teams in Dorset adult and junior leagues, the club has identified relaying the square as highly desirable.

Mark Taylor, who is organising the fundraiser, said: "Such investment in the club's ground is essential if it is to continue to provide a much needed and highly valued sporting facility, for all ages, genders, and backgrounds, in rural Dorset."

The pitch is in use most days during the summer; the club has a particularly active youth section with representation at under 9, 11 and 15 and two teams at under 13. Ten players from the youth teams also play county cricket. It is hoped that the children will go on to become the future adult team players in years to come and that the fundraising will benefit them in the long term.

Trip of a lifetime lands Josh dream job

By Trevor Bevins

A THREE-week expedition in Kenya has helped Kingston Maurward student Josh Sherry win a place in the Army where he hopes to become a Combat Medic

The 17-year-old level two public services student joined in a trip with Dorset Expeditionary Society in order to fulfill the volunteering module of his course.

Josh travelled to Chogoria, around two hours' drive from the capital, Nairobi, where he helped out with teaching lessons and assisting in others. One of the schools was for children with special needs, where he taught PE lessons and helped with English and maths.

His other tasks included helping knock down and rebuilding the kitchen in a villager's house, a project sponsored by a UK benefactor.

He was particularly inspired by a young boy who could not walk, was partially sighted and had hearing problems but he was very happy listening to the football results. Josh says it showed him that people in difficult circumstances can still find something they love, and make the most of it.

Josh says that the trip made him more confident, and due to his experiences he has inspired two of his fellow classmates to plan a volunteering trip to India later this year.

■ KINGSTON Maurward student Josh Sherry during his trip to Kenya

He said: "The experiences were sensational! Some of the life lessons I gained are priceless – I would encourage anyone to do what I've done."

After completing his public services diploma this summer, Josh will return to the college in September for the army preparation course.

He starts his career in the army in February 2015.

"I was really disappointed that I didn't finish as I completed it last year, however my sponsors are still paying me as 51 miles is still a long way, only 10 miles from Brighton," said Mandy.

"I have raised £600 for our residents and I'm already planning my next big walk next year."

HAPPY Paws has been running now for over 9 years and we continue to grow – we started out as just a dog walking service in January 2005, in the Crewkerne area, which then grew into a dedicated team of Guardians providing a home environment for your dog to stay. Over the years and with our own personal experience we have gained the knowledge and understanding to attend to your pets needs ensuring a happy dog whilst you are away. We pride ourselves in giving your pet a safe, loving and happy environment whilst maintaining a high standard of service. We understand how very important our pets are, so we carefully choose our 'Happy Paws Guardians' who also maintain the same standard of care, are risk assessed by us, are fully insured and police checked. Although we are a small, friendly, family run business and don't have too many dogs staying at the same time, we try to cover a wide area, with our Guardians in various locations over Dorset & Somerset - dog walkers in Bridport and Crewkerne & Sherborne areas. House Sitter's in various locations, and Home Boarding for Dogs in Bridport area, surroundings villages near Crewkerne & Yeovil, Weymouth and Taunton.

Business rate relief

BUSINESSES which move into shops which have been empty for a year or more are being offered a discount on their rates in West Dorset.

The district council is to offer a 50 per cent discount on business rates for 18 months for firms which qualify.

Robert Gould, Leader of West Dorset District Council, said: "We are keen to do all we can to support West Dorset's businesses. We want our towns and villages to go on thriving and I am very pleased we can help them."

"Nationally 14 per cent of shops are empty. In West Dorset we are confident that our high streets are still doing fairly well."

"We are lucky to have so many great independent shops and locally-run businesses. I hope this move will encourage even more to start trading."

Business Rates Reoccupation Relief will be available to businesses that move into previously long term empty premises, which were mainly used for retail before they closed down.

In order to qualify, traders will need to have moved in between April 1st 2014 and March 31st 2016. However, it will not be available to all businesses. Among those not qualifying will be betting shops, pay day loan companies and pawn brokers.

Double celebration for Weldmar

WELDMAR Hospicecare Trust is celebrating the 30th anniversary of its community palliative care nursing service which started in 1984.

It is also the 30th anniversary of National Volunteers Week which runs this week until Saturday, June 7th.

So Weldmar is adding its support to this year's "Time To Say Thank You" theme by thanking all its volunteers for their commitment to helping patients and their families, for raising funds and helping in charity shops.

Over the last 30 years volunteers have helped with collecting and obtaining prescriptions for patients, taken patients to outpatient appointments, trained as bereavement volunteers and run bingo events.

They have held garden parties, sorted donations for sale in the shops, arranged flowers, helped with complementary therapies, worked in day care services and performed admin tasks at sites from Joseph Weld Hospice in Dorchester to Trimar in Weymouth as well as patients' homes, charity shops and numerous places where fundraising events are held.

Trust chief executive Alison Ryan said: "We are indebted to all our volunteers, both past and present, for their incredible contribution to patient care, retail and fundraising. The thousands of hours they contribute each year is part of the essence of hospice care."

"On behalf of Weldmar I would like

■ WELDMAR says thank you to its volunteers to say thank you to everyone, not just in Volunteers' Week but every week of the year."

Weldmar's community palliative care nursing team started 30 years ago from a caravan in Maud Road School playground, Dorchester.

Meriel Dunham answered the phone in the caravan there when she started volunteering in May 1984.

She now volunteers on reception in Joseph Weld Hospice and is the longest serving volunteer of 853 people who volunteer for Weldmar. A further seven volunteers have worked for more than 25 years and 14 have clocked up over 20 years. Nearly half of Weldmar's volunteers have been volunteering more than 10 years.

Dot Hand has been tirelessly fundraising for the trust since January 1992. Each year Dot runs two bingo events, holds a garden party, a Christmas coffee morning bring and buy and the bric-a-brac stall at the summer fete.

She said: "I started volunteering because I lost my late husband to cancer in 1988. I was able to nurse him at home, but when I heard about the hospice soon to be built, I felt that was very good for people not able to cope at home."

"I watched the foundations of Joseph Weld going in and took my grandson along to show him too."

Joan Gendall said: "In 1992 a friend asked me to help at Trimar. I then moved to Brownlow Street, Weymouth. I still do half days on a Tuesday and Friday. Volunteering gets me out, I've made some very good friends and enjoy the company."

Since 1984 there have been more than 14,700 patients referred for specialist care from Weldmar's community palliative care team. Weldmar is also celebrating 20 years since the opening of Joseph Weld Hospice to patients in January 1994 when there have been over 7,000 admissions.

Anyone interested in volunteering for the trust, is invited to contact Caroline Munslow on 01305 215410, enquire at any trust shops or visit www.weld-hospice.org.uk/volunteering for more information.

Classic cars take to Dorset's roads

■ BRIAN Johnston and granddaughter Cerri, aged seven, from Pymore with a Crossley 15-30 1927

■ DORCHESTER Mayor Peter Mann who started the event with a 1935 Beardmore taxi

by Trevor Bevins

A HUNDRED classic cars took to Dorset's roads on Sunday in an annual event to raise money for the Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

Starting from Bockhampton the vehicles, some almost a century old, were set off on the Transport of Yesteryear Hardy Classic tour by Dorchester Mayor Peter Mann.

"They are a magnificent sight and lucky to have the weather with them," said Mr Mann.

Among the more eye-catching vehicles was a Crossley 15/30 dating from 1927 and owned by Brian Johnston was Lower Ash Farm, Pymore – taking along granddaughter Cerri for the ride.

"We've brought along a picnic with all the essentials, so we should have a good day," said Mr Johnston, whose floral addition to the car along the front bumper has been in place since last year's Bridport Carnival.

"They're well fixed. I doubt if they will come off now," he said.

Bringing along their 1950 MG TD was Tony and Gill Fellows, also equipped for a picnic with their open-top tourer.

The car was bought from a previous owner at Hazelbury Bryan and replaced an even older MG owned by the couple which came to grief in an accident during a previous rally, the vehicle being written off and Tony and Gill both knocked out by the impact.

"It did put us off to begin with, but we're happy to be back again... these rallies are a great social event, we meet up with people we don't normally see from one year to the next."

The rally took the drivers on a scenic route ending at Weymouth Pavilion where they remained on display until about 4.30pm on Sunday afternoon.

What is microchipping?

Microchipping is a simple safe and quick procedure. It can make all the difference in being reunited with your pet should they stray or go missing.

The microchip is the size of a grain of rice and the procedure, which is carried out by a vet or trained microchip implanter, takes only a few minutes and lasts a lifetime.

How does a microchip help to reunite a lost pet with their owner?

Once your pet is microchipped, you and your pet's details are stored in a microchip database along with the microchip's unique 15 digit code.

When a missing pet is found, an animal professional (for example a vet or dog warden) will scan the pet revealing the microchip's unique 15 digit code, and contact the microchip database your pet is registered with. The customer care staff will perform some security checks before releasing your contact details to the animal professional - so that your pet can be reunited with you.

Margaret Green Animal Rescue

ESTABLISHED in 1965, Margaret Green Animal Rescue is the oldest and largest animal rescue charity founded in Dorset. Each year we care for over 1,200 animals, including dogs, cats, rabbits, donkeys, horses, goats, sheep and pigs to name just a few. Our Church Knowle Animal Sanctuary and Visitor Centre is open every day except Christmas Day between 10am and 4pm. Why not bring a picnic, spend a few hours and enjoy seeing for yourself the first-class care our rescue animals receive whilst they are with us. We also have a tea and gift shop for you to enjoy.

On Sunday 3rd August join us for our annual Companion Dog Show and Family Fun Day. There will be something for everyone, and every dog! Enter pedigree and novelty classes, enjoy a glass of Pimms, browse the stalls and try your luck on the tombola. The event is open between 11am and 4pm.

Our address is Church Knowle, Nr Wareham, Dorset, BH20 5NQ.

Two residents of our sanctuary at Church Knowle who have been waiting patiently for their new homes are cats Bronte and Missy. Bronte was extremely nervous when he first arrived, but after a long period of rehabilitation, he is getting over his nerves and will happily be stroked when he is comfortable with you. Six year old Missy would like a home where she can be affectionate on her own terms. Could you offer either of them their perfect forever home? Please call the sanctuary for more information on 01929 480474.

Bredy Veterinary Centre Ltd

BREDY Veterinary Centre is pleased to be part of National Microchipping month during June 2014, offering a 25% discount to have your dogs and cats microchipped.

From the 6th of April 2016, it will be statutory for all dogs to be microchipped.

Every month, we see injured or lost cats and dogs brought to the practice and if your pet is chipped, it makes it so much easier to contact the owner(s) to re-unite them with their pet or treat their injured pet accordingly.

If your pet is already microchipped, we can offer a free microchip scan. We will check all your contact details are correct. Please contact the practice to arrange an appointment.

Training the next generation of lifesavers

SCHOOLS in Dorset are being offered the opportunity to create a generation of young life savers – free of charge.

St John Ambulance is using funds raised in the South West to deliver first aid training to seven to 11-year-olds as part of the charity's aim of teaching 18,000 children in the region by the end of 2014.

Dorchester-based first aid training co-ordinator, Grant Wilson said: "We believe that first aid should be as much a part of growing up as learning to cross the road.

"It's so easy to learn and can have such an incredible impact on people's lives but, because it's not compulsory on the national curriculum, only a minority of schoolchildren would know what to do if one of their classmates, or a member of their family became ill or injured."

The call to train more youngsters comes as new research shows that 97 per cent of the area's teachers think it's vital to teach essential first aid skills in school, but only 22 per cent of schools offer training.

Teachers also cite lack of staff training, time and cost as barriers to introducing lessons into the classroom. "We want as many schools as possible to sign up to the Big First Aid Lesson and take advantage of the funded training we're able to offer, this year," added Grant, who will be among the trainers delivering lessons in the county.

"Together, we can equip a generation with the skills to be the difference between a life lost and a life saved."

St John Ambulance is also looking for new first aid trainers to help meet demand for its training.

To book St John Ambulance first aid training for schools, or find out more about becoming a trainer for the charity, call Grant Wilson on Dorchester (01305) 751157.

Youth club raise funds for RNLI

■ DORCHESTER teenagers who raised money for the RNLI heard about the work of the lifeboat crews at the town's youth club.

Alice Higgins, a volunteer crew member at Weymouth, as well as a lifeguard on Weymouth beach, talked about the work of the Dorset-based charity which also includes work with flood victims and an education campaign about the dangers of water.

She told the Dorchester youngsters that the RNLI has saved more than 140,000 lives through direct action since 1824.

Fire chief says thank you to volunteers

DORSET Fire and Rescue is this week celebrating five years of its volunteering scheme with almost 100 active volunteers.

Dorset Fire and Rescue Service, Chief Fire Officer Darran Gunter will be thanking the volunteers with a barbecue after their team meeting.

Chief Fire Officer, Darran Gunter said: "I am delighted to attend the volunteers' meeting and celebrate their achievements with them.

"Since launching the scheme five-years-ago volunteers have attended hundreds of events, meetings and initiatives in their local communities. All with the aim of helping these communities stay safer.

He added: "They are an amazing asset, allowing us to enhance the service we offer to our most vulnerable communities."

Dorset Fire and Rescue Volunteer Co-ordinator Nicky Jenkins said: "Currently we have a team of 96 volunteers who cover the whole of Dorset, from Lyme Regis to Christchurch, Portland to Gillingham. We are always looking for new recruits to help with the challenging and rewarding opportunities on offer.

"Our volunteers have the opportunity to get involved with all aspects of the service, including helping with our youth initiatives, assisting at corporate events and volunteering alongside firefighters at their local station.

"All our volunteers are provided with a uniform and full training.

"If you can spare a few hours a week to make your community a safer place to live, please contact me on 01305 252698 or email volunteering@dorset-fire.gov.uk."

Weymouth Community Safety Centre is also looking for volunteers to be based at Weymouth Community Fire Station.

The service ideally need people who would be willing to work on reception, set up rooms or help in our cafe.

If you are interested please contact Vikki Thomas on 01305 753054 or email vikki.thomas@dorset-fire.gov.uk.

COURTNEY PINE BLOWS SOME CARIBBEAN FLAVOUR INTO BRIDPORT

AFTER sell out gigs in 2013 the Electric Palace will welcome once again Courtney Pine for a dance-inducing Caribbean-inspired event. This will be Courtney's only gig in the Southwest so there a big crowd outside Bridport is expected. No musician more embodies the dramatic transformation in the British jazz scene over the past twenty + years than Courtney Pine C.B.E. The ground breaking, multi-instrumentalist has led a generation of exciting and innovative players who have broadened their styles to take jazz out to a wider audience.

Fresh from sell out shows across the US, Canada and Europe, headline slots at Bestival, Love Supreme and Greenbelt Festivals here in the UK, Courtney in back touring his critically acclaimed House of Legends set. This, his 15th studio album to date sees Courtney return to the instrument he is best known for - the Saxophone and features his soprano sax exclusively for the first time.

Courtney Pine

Deeply steeped in the traditions of the Caribbean, this very personal project sees Courtney on top form, bringing together musicians from Africa, the Caribbean and Europe for vibrant exchanges that tell tales of life from a truly multi-cultural view point.

Expect an exhilarating mix of Merengue, Ska, Mento and Calypso as played through the lens (saxophone) of a UK born artist with strong, proud Afro-Caribbean roots. More information about the event can be found at www.electric-palace.org.uk

JAZZ BRUNCH AT THE SYMONDSBURY ESTATE

SYMONDSBURY Estate are holding their first Jazz Brunch at The Tithe Barn in Manor Yard, Symondsbur. The Frank Griffith Trio will be performing a mixture of mainstream and modern jazz on Sunday, July 20th from 11am - 2pm, followed by DJ James Baker finishing up with a little jazz on the decks.

Heading up the trio is Frank Griffith - born in Eugene, Oregon - and having previously lived and worked in New York he has worked alongside Ron Carter, Mel Tormé, Dame Cleo Laine and many others. He has also played lead alto with the Glenn Miller Orchestra. He's no stranger to the area as he has played annually at the Bridport Arts Centre since 2010 featuring the music of Miles Davis, Dave Brubeck and Stan Getz. Joining Frank is Mike Outram - a Manchester born guitarist who has been known to grace the stage with Martin Speake, Herbie Mann, Tim Garland and the widely-loved pianist and folksmith Billy Bottle. Also on the stage will be Julian Bury who has played with everyone from Gilbert O'Sullivan to Bobby Wellins and Jim Mullen.

After the trio have performed DJ James Baker will play a selection of Jazz on the decks to wind down the event.

Julia Butcher, Marketing Manager for Symondsbur Estate says: "We are immensely excited to be planning our first Music event in Symondsbur. Even more exciting is the fact we are holding the event in the Tithe Barn! This marks the long awaited completion of renovations at Manor Yard in Symondsbur, it would be great to see as many people there as possible to join in the celebrations, and what better way to do it than with a little jazz!

"There will be a full bar available - and we will be introducing the Manor Yard Bloody Mary - a concoction of Dorset Cow Vodka & Dorset Tomato Juice.

"We are offering two types of tickets £5 for Jazz only and £10 including brunch (a mini ploughmans)."

Tickets are on sale now. You can book tickets via the website www.symondsburystate.co.uk from the Symondsbur Estate Office at Manor Yard or from Symondsbur Kitchen.

Too Many Apples/Quest of a Play - a double bill from Dorchester Youth Theatre

FOLLOWING on from the sell-out performances of Dorchester Youth Theatre's Senior Company's recent production of The Crucible, it is now the turn of the younger members of this successful youth theatre.

On June 12th and 13th at Dorchester Corn Exchange, members of DYT Junior and Intermediate groups will perform in a double bill starting at 7pm on both evenings.

Performed by DYT Juniors, Too Many Apples by Robert Smith is a mini musical morality play set in modern times and is about a young girl from a wealthy family who meets and befriends a young homeless boy on the streets of a big city. There are many problems facing both children and the play deals with many modern issues - such as homelessness, troublesome youth, the difficulties of parenting, community policing and law and order. Despite this, it is a moving and at times, very funny play which uses songs and a 'chorus' to describe the plot and comment on the characters' actions.

After the interval, it will be the Intermediates' turn to step into the limelight - their production - Quest of a Play by Geraldine O'Neill is a play within a play ironically set in a youth theatre!

When the facilitators walk out of a drama session the group needs to come up with a Quest play. The cast come in and out of role as they tell the story of a pair of twins and their adventures in South America in pursuit of their parents. They constantly change role, setting up characters and situations as the story unfolds. They even get interrupted by the arrival of a new member of the group, who is immediately cast in the play, and moves the story on.

Says Jo Simons, Director of Dorchester Youth Theatre: "It has been magical seeing these young performers grow in confidence over the last couple of years. As a director it is so exciting to see them put into practice what they have learnt. They have shown commitment and professionalism in rehearsals and we can't wait to share the finished results."

Mock The Week regular Carl Donnelly to headline next Sunday Night at the Pavilion

TV COMEDIANS Carl Donnelly and Justin Moorhouse will be the stars of the next Sunday Night at the Pavilion show in Weymouth this month.

This father's day, June 15th, Weymouth Pavilion bring you some of the biggest names in stand up comedy to escape the dad jokes for a night.

Following in from the success of last month's show with Sean Hughes, this month sees resident MC Tom Glover joined by Dan Thomas, Justin Moorhouse and Carl Donnelly.

Headliner Carl Donnelly is a Mock the Week regular who is on the verge of becoming a household name after being nominated for the best show at last year's Edinburgh festival.

Famed for his relaxed anecdotal storytelling Carl is a multi award-winning comic who has also featured on Dave's One Night Stand, Russell Howard's Good News and Stand Up for the Week.

Manchester funnyman Justin Moorhouse has gone from strength to strength since appearing on Michael McIntyre's comedy roadshow in 2010 and is often seen on the small, and big, screen as a stand up and actor appearing in both series of Peter Kay's Phoenix Nights, Shameless and Coronation Street.

As well as his appearances on TV Justin also writes and stars in his own Radio 4 sitcom "Everyone quite likes Justin".

One of the finest observational comics in the country, Justin has a large and loyal following in the north and is making a rare trip to the south coast to share his stellar stand up with the Weymouth crowd.

Completing the line up is Welsh madman Dan Thomas, winner of the Loaded magazine LAFTAS award and former tour support for Russell Kane. Regular local MC Tom Glover will be hosting the show and sharing more of his observations of life on the coast.

New Exhibition opens at Dorset Museum to Commemorate First World War

A Dorset Woman at War: Mabel Stobart and the Retreat from Serbia 1915

A SPECIAL exhibition has just opened at Dorset County Museum commemorating the centenary of the start of the First World War. The exhibition focuses on the story of one Dorset woman, Mabel St Clair Stobart, exploring her life and the role she played during the epic retreat of the Serbian army in 1915.

The Museum has a collection of unique photographs recording Mabel Stobart's experiences in Serbia. They trace her intrepid journey from the tented field hospital she established near the front line and the relentless 800 mile trek through the Albanian mountains to her final escape from Scutari. Her story is exceptional, not only for the adventures she experienced but because she was motivated by bettering the lot of women. She led her mission to Serbia in the face of opposition from another famous Dorset figure, Sir Frederick Treves, who felt there was no place for women in the Serbian conflict.

The photographs of Stobart's adventures are highly graphic and do not flinch from the horrors of war. When Kodak developed them for her subsequent lecture tour of America, they were so impressed that they were blown up, mounted and hung in the Kodak head office.

The exhibition reveals the extraordinary story of a powerful and determined woman who frequented the salons of London Society but was also a feminist, playwright and farmer.

A Dorset Woman at War runs until Saturday 15 November 2014. Opening times at the Museum are 10am to 5pm Monday to Saturday. The Museum will also be open on the first four Sundays in August.

One of the most established pianists of this generation to play at Marine Theatre PIANIST Alasdair Beatson is highly regarded as a distinctive and vibrant musician and one of the most established chamber pianists of his generation, performing in concert halls all over the UK and Europe to mass praise and critical acclaim. His most notable highlights of 2014 include appearances with the Scottish Chamber Orchestra, the Royal Scottish National Orchestra and Britten Sinfonia. In collaboration with Concerts in the West, Alasdair will be adding the Marine Theatre to his tour dates, performing a truly inspiring and impressive solo concert for all music lovers on Thursday 5th June.

To further add to his achievements, Beatson's debut solo CD - the opus 1-s of Schumann, Brahms, Grieg and Berg - was released on SOMM Recordings in 2009 to rave reviews. His recent CD of Mendelssohn piano music with SOMM Recordings received praise for 'highly sensitive playing of rare insight' (Classic FM Magazine) and was awarded the 'Outstanding' accolade of International Record Review. A new disc presenting the complete piano music of Ludwig Thuille was released in April 2013.

Concerts in the West events successfully bring an evening of excellent musical talent right to your door and are proving to be as popular as ever, with Alasdair Beatson as no exception. Don't miss it!

The Trials of Oscar Wilde

CORRECTION: - THE performance of The Trials of Oscar Wilde at Bridport Arts Centre, actually takes place TODAY (Wednesday, June 4th), not on Wednesday, July 4th as detailed in the press release received last week by the View.

THE criminal trials of one of the wittiest men who ever lived will be brought to life at the BridportArts Centre on Wednesday, June 4th, 7.30pm. Written by his grandson, The Trials of Oscar Wilde will feature a host of familiar actors.

The action starts on 14 February 1895 - the triumphant opening night of The Importance of Being Earnest and the zenith of Wilde's career. Weeks later Wilde took a libel action out against Lord Queensberry, the father of his young friend Bosie, who had accused him of being a sodomite. Three days into the trial Wilde dropped the case and was himself arrested and charged with "unnatural acts" with other men.

Less than 100 days later, he found himself a common prisoner sentenced to two years hard labour. So what happened during the trials and what did Wilde say? Was he harshly treated or the author of his own downfall?

Written with Merlin Holland, Oscar Wilde's grandson and acclaimed author of The Real Trial of Oscar Wilde, the play is based on the original words spoken in court.

The play features a talented cast including John Gorick (Holby City and Understudy for Rowan Atkinson in Quartermaine's Terms), Rupert Mason (Eastenders, A Touch of Frost) and William Kempbell. It is directed by Peter Craze (Doctor Who, Blake's Seven).

Tickets are priced £12/£11 members/£10 concessions. 20x Super £3 concessions will be saved for those in receipt of benefits, terms and conditions apply. Please contact the box office for more information 01308 424204 or book online at www.bridport-arts.com

Axe Vale Festival in its 20th year

THE friendly Axe Vale Festival is probably one of the best gardening and craft shows in the South West. Now in its 20th year, it continues to be organised and run by teams of dedicated volunteers, and over this time has successfully raised in excess of £300,000 for local community projects.

The original flower festival has developed over the years and now includes marquees for food, crafts, toys and hobbies, art, antiques and collectables, and Axe Vale Community (showcasing local businesses). Shopping malls, demonstrators, arena events, including live music complete the many attractions.

The Axe Vale Festival is a great day out for all the family, with many activities and entertainment for children and adults.

As always, the Floral Marquee will host stands with stunning displays, ranging from orchids to carnivorous plants, chrysanthemums to Japanese maples, displays of clematis and other climbers, all designed by award-winning exhibitors. Plants, seeds and garden tools can be purchased throughout the show, and as the Festival draws to a close on Sunday afternoon, there may well be an opportunity to pick up some real bargains!

The Craft Marquee showcases over 8,000 square metres of handmade, locally crafted items; from silver jewellery to fused glass, from turned wooden bowls to wildlife photography, with art, bags, knitwear and beauty products. With over 60 stands, including live demonstrations, there is guaranteed to be something to inspire and entice everyone, including gift buyers – so why not treat yourself!

Feeling hungry, then head for the Food Hall where you will find an excellent range of locally sourced pies, pasties, sausages, cheeses, puddings, yoghurts, fudge, chutneys, and homemade bread and cakes. And don't forget to sample the locally made drinks too. Also there will be a number of food mobiles around the showground.

The toys and hobbies marquee is full of fabulous collections; from model boats to milk bottles and lots in-between, including a colourful hand-made Fairground. This marquee really does have something for everyone to admire and enjoy. All the exhibitors are passionate about their collections and are very happy to answer questions and share reminiscences with visitors.

Enjoy visiting the Antiques and collectable marquee (which includes vintage retro) for glass & china, gem jewellery, bronzes, silver, ceramics, lamps, pictures, small items of furniture, 1950's Art Nouveau, Victorian copper, brass, treen, vintage linen, pictures, clocks, coins, model cars, postcards, cigarette cards, medals, stamps, militaria, bric-a-brac, tea pots, cameos, watches, garden items, toys, chairs, stools, paperweights and curios.

Visit the Annual Show of the Axminster and District Horticultural Society with its large number of classes and the exhibition and sale of the local Art Society.

Finally, to round off your day, enjoy a shopping spree in the ever popular Shopping Malls which feature a wonderful range of clothes and jewellery, and plenty of ideas for your home and garden.

A Wine Tasting Evening with Steven Spurrier raises funds for Bridport Arts Centre

BRIDPORT Arts Centre is delighted to announce that its recent fundraising event raised £1,400 for the Arts Centre Funds.

The wine tasting evening was led by the internationally renowned wine expert Steven Spurrier. The event, A Tour de France, highlighted a range of French wines. These were specially selected by Mark Banham who is in charge of Palmers Wines in Bridport. The sell out event was held in the Allsop Gallery at the Arts Centre. After the wine tasting a buffet themed to complement the French wines was provided by Modan Catering. Cudmore Event Hire provided the logistical support for the event.

Trevor Ware Chair of the Arts Centre Board of Trustees organised a special Draw. 'The Remarkable Bottle Raffle' included many Dorset beverages and had as its main prize a 1955 bottle of port. The Draw raised an additional £525.00

Trevor commented: "The Arts Centre would like to thank all those who supported this event. It is very important that the Arts Centre continues its fundraising effort in order that we invest more in the building, our programme and our outreach and education work. This is the 40th Anniversary of the BAC foundation and we wish to continue with the development of the vision given by our founders. The Bridport Arts Centre is, and will remain, at the heart of West Dorset arts. We are very grateful for the funds raised but are also pleased that those attending had such an enjoyable and interesting evening."

D-DAY 70th Commemorations

Lyme Regis 1944-2014

6th-8th JUNE

FROM November 1943 to June 1944, thousands of American troops were stationed in and around the villages and towns of Dorset and Devon as the Allied armies massed in preparation for D-Day, the huge invasion of Normandy on June 6th 1944 that marked the beginning of the world's liberation from the greatest evil in the history of mankind.

Many of the GIs, C Company of the US 16th Infantry Regiment, were based in Lyme Regis, which, like towns and villages all around, had sent off its own young men and women to serve in the world war.

Lyme and the Americans quickly became friends. Many residents now still fondly remember the great kindnesses shown to them as children by the generous GIs of C Company, some of whom won war brides here.

Some, including Captain Victor Briggs the commander of C Company, married and made a child here; whom they would never come home from the war to know. Capt. Briggs, who honeymooned at Lyme's Royal Lion Hotel, was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross in recognition of his valour on D-Day.

Eleven men from Lyme and nearby villages died in the Normandy campaign. More than 200 men from the US 16th Infantry Regiment fell on Omaha Beach, one of the five hellhole Normandy landing sectors.

To mark the 70th anniversary of D-Day and to salute the courage of all those who served that day in the ranks of Freedom – the airmen, seamen and soldiers of the British, American and Canadian forces and their comrades in the French Resistance – the Mayor, Town Council, Royal British Legion and the whole community of Lyme Regis is staging a weekend of commemoration, from Friday June 6th to Sunday June 8th.

Although the world's main focus will be on the Normandy Beaches on June 6th, when leaders of all nations attend ceremonies there, Lyme will play its small part by representing all of the towns and villages of Dorset and Devon with events organised to mark the two counties' own great debt to the honoured brave.

The whole town will be decked out red, white and blue with scores of Union Jack and Stars and Stripes flags and bunting, as Lyme's 'Flags For Heroes' salute. All are invited to attend the events, especially veterans and relatives of World War II Servicemen.

THE PROGRAMME OF EVENTS

During the D-Day Commemorations weekend and until July the Lyme Regis Museum will hold a special exhibition centred on the 11 local men who died in the Normandy campaign.

FRIDAY JUNE 6TH

6.00am St Michael's Church Cliffs – outdoor clifftop service of remembrance and salute conducted by the Rev Jane Skinner, timed to coincide with the beginning of the assault on Normandy of 70 years ago.

7.30pm The Woodmead Halls – D-Day Variety Show, an evening of wartime-themed entertainment performed by members of local organisations including: The Woodroffe School Jazz Band, the Dramatic Society, the Lyme Junior and Senior Majorettes and the Pantomine Society. Tickets £5.00 from the Tourist Information Centre. Tel 01297 442138.

SATURDAY JUNE 7TH

10.00am The Regent Cinema – a special screening of 'Went The Day Well?', a 1942 Ealing Studios war film of a Graham Greene story of an English village taken over by Nazi paratroopers – a particular Lyme fear during the war as the town was among the German invasion targets. Doors open 10.00 am, screening at 10.30 am. Tickets £1 downstairs, £2 upstairs. Tel 01297 442053.

7.00 pm The Woodmead Halls – D-Day Swing Dance Night; songs and themes of the 1940s performed by The Three Counties Swing Band, The Land Girls and the Lyme Regis ukulele group, The Luggers. 40s dress optional. Tickets £8.00 from the Tourist Information Centre. Tel 01297 442138.

SUNDAY JUNE 8TH

1.15pm Bell Cliff – unveiling by The Mayor of Lyme Regis of a commemorative plaque presented by the US 16th Infantry Regiment Association.

1.30pm Cobb Gate – full military and civic march on the seafront led by veteran Servicemen, the Royal British Legion standard-bearers, cadets and the Mayor of Lyme Regis with the Town Crier and Mace Bearers.

2.00pm The Jubilee Pavilion on the seafront – a full service and salute led by the Rev Stephen Skinner, the Mayor of Lyme Regis and the Royal British Legion with accompaniment from the Lyme Regis Town Band, with boats at The Cobb flying appropriate flags in joint salute.

2.30pm The Jubilee Pavilion – opening of an exhibition of wartime Lyme, including photographs, memorabilia and local memories and a Roll Call of the Lyme and American fallen recorded by the junior schoolchildren of Lyme Regis and Uplyme.

The Jubilee Pavilion Service will include messages from the relatives of those who fought at D-Day. One such message has been sent from the USA to Lyme Regis by Victor Harvey Briggs III, the son of Lyme's C Company commander, Captain Victor H. Briggs Jnr DSC, who died after D-Day in another battle, in Germany.

The letter reads: 'Lyme Regis is an important place for me because it was there that my mother and father spent the few brief weeks of their married life together. Many heroic men gave their lives on D-Day and during the campaign that followed. It is very gratifying to me that the people of Lyme Regis are honoring their sacrifice and their memory. I offer my sincere thanks for this tribute.'

Intuitive Healing

Therapeutic SOUL-utions

INTUITIVE HEALING

A non contact alternative approach to orthodox treatments which helps promote energy balance and pain relief.

ALL ENQUIRIES WELCOME - David Wallace - 07909 481706
therapeuticsoulutions@gmail.com

Intuitive Healing is the diagnosing and mending of our physical, emotional and sexual wellbeing from within.
An intuitive Healer will carry out this work by directing energy to the required place of discomfort allowing the patient's own self healing powers to do the actual healing. Information about the root cause of the discomfort can also be channelled giving the patient an insight as to how best to self treat their individual problems.

The New Generation Audi RS 7 Sportback

▲ The new generation Audi RS 7 Sportback

THE RS 7 Sportback – the most potent five-door coupé in the Audi range – now looks even sharper and performs even more efficiently, yet no less formidably. The new generation RS 7 Sportback, which becomes available to order in the UK later this summer ahead of first deliveries in late 2014, combines subtle styling enhancements with new LED lighting, upgraded infotainment features and revisions to the 560 PS V8 TFSI powerplant which enable it to comply with new EU6 emissions regulations.

“The Audi RS 7 Sportback confirms the reputation of the RS models as the superior, top athletes of our brand,” states Prof. Dr. Ulrich Hackenberg, Member of the Board of Management for Technical Development of AUDI AG. “The combination of a powerful four-litre V8 engine with Cylinder on Demand technology, quattro drive and intelligent lightweight design makes the RS 7 Sportback an outstanding piece of sports equipment for any fan of dynamic and yet efficient driving.”

Even at first glance, the Audi RS 7 Sportback reveals its dynamic character – the long bonnet, flowing C-pillars and the sharply sloping rear end form an aesthetic overall impression. New design details add striking touches. They include the Singleframe grille with the black honeycomb typical of RS models, with the corners now even sharper and more distinctive. Three optional packages – matt aluminium, gloss black and carbon – make the look of the RS 7 Sportback even more distinctive.

Subtle modifications have also been made to the bumper, with its distinctive air inlets. The headlights, also adapted to the new singleframe grille, now feature LED technology as standard. Matrix LED technology is available for the first time on the RS 7 Sportback, with integrated dynamic turn signals on the front and rear. The tail lights also have a new interior design. New to the paint palette are the colours Floret silver, metallic; Glacier white, metallic; Mythos black, metallic and Sepang blue, pearl effect.

In the elegant black interior, dominated by the RS sport seats, the designers have made judicious changes to the instrument cluster, including the air outlet controls of the vent nozzles, the shift paddles behind the steering wheel and the quattro emblem on the instrument panel. The standard MMI navigation plus with MMI touch now uses the modular infotainment platform of the latest generation; its highlight is an efficient graphics processor from Audi partner, Nvidia.

The EU6-compliant 4.0 TFSI engine in the revised Audi RS 7 Sportback provides the same prodigious 560 PS, with a constant 700 Nm (516.3 lb-ft) of torque at engine speeds between 1,750 and 5,500 rpm. The engine catapults the five-door coupé from 0 to 62mph in 3.9 seconds; the optional dynamics packages allow top speeds of 174mph and 189mph respectively. On a combined cycle however, the resonant V8 twin-turbo returns up to 29.7mpg, and emits 221 grams of CO₂ per km. A key factor in this efficiency is the Cylinder on Demand (CoD) system, which can shut down four cylinders during partial load operation.

An eight-speed tiptronic transmission tuned for optimum performance also features a tall final gear to contribute to fuel efficiency. The might of the V8 engine is harnessed by the quattro permanent all-wheel drive system and used to best effect by the standard Sports differential, which apportions torque in precisely measured quantities between the rear wheels according to driving conditions.

RS adaptive air suspension is fitted as standard, together with adaptive damping, and is controlled via the Audi drive select driving dynamics system. Audi offers the tauter RS sport suspension plus with Dynamic Ride Control (DRC) as an alternative. A further option is dynamic steering, which continuously varies the steering ratio for greater agility.

The revised Audi RS 7 Sportback is fitted with 20-inch forged lightweight alloy wheels as a standard. Optional 21-inch cast aluminium wheels are available in three different colours. The four internally ventilated brake discs have a weight-saving wave design. Alternatively carbon fibre-ceramic discs are available as an option. Electronic Stabilisation Control (ESC) features a Sport mode that can be deactivated altogether if required.

Weymouth & District Schools Table Tennis

Graham cleans up without dropping a leg

SEVENTY players from schools representing Holy Trinity, St Johns, Chickerell, Sunninghill, Radipole, Wey Valley, All Saints, Budmouth, Thomas Hardy and Sir John Colfox took part in this year's Weymouth & District Schools Table Tennis tournament held at All Saints, Wey Valley and Holy Trinity schools.

Particularly encouraging this year was the number entered in the under 11 age group who accounted for approx half of the total players, which overall was split equally between the girls and boys events.

This is partly due to clubs being set up at Radipole and Holy Trinity, and the Weymouth & District Table Tennis League training sessions, where players as young as eight are joining the beginners sessions.

The standard shown in these younger age groups is very encouraging for the future of table tennis in the district.

Girls under 11 – winner Rosa Mckechnie (Holy Trinity) This drew the biggest entry with 23 girls from Holy Trinity taking part

The final four of Isobel Stainer, Rosa Mckechnie, Edith Dedman and Willow Mather played a closely contested round robin competition, with Mckechnie winning all three matches, beating Dedman 11-8 in the vital last game.

Boys under 11 – winner Tom Lydford (Holy Trinity) Holy Trinity boys continue to lead the way, but other primary schools are starting to challenge, in particular Jed Brackenridge (St Johns), Noah Drummond (Chickerell) and Harry Layzell (Sunninghill). Ethan Clark, Sam Burton, Tom Lydford, Billy Baker, Archie Woolford, Devin Fry, Louis Gear and Toby Diment-Aylott all qualified for their initial round robin groups through to the quarter finals.

In the semi-finals the Holy Trinity pupils were evenly matched. The first saw Clark edge out Baker 3-2 and the second saw Lydford beat Burton 3-1; 14-12 in the fourth game.

The final did not disappoint either as Lydford made a strong start going two legs up, but Clark came back to take the match to a deciding set, only for Lydford to save his best to last and win the title.

Girls under 13 – winner April Heasman (Wey Valley) This event saw four Wey Valley students Laura Hayward, Amelia Luff, Mya Williams and April Heasman play against Erin Stow (Budmouth) in a round robin tournament.

The Wey Valley girls were fresh from winning the girls under 13 Dorset schools team championship, whilst Stow was part of the under 16 team from Budmouth that won the girls under 16 title.

The crucial matches were between Heasman, Stow and Williams. Dorset cadet county player Heasman beat Stow 11-5, 11-4 to claim top spot, but the Budmouth player bounced back to claim 2nd place in a close 5-11, 11-6, 11-9 win against Williams for the runner up trophy.

Boys under 13 – winner Ben Hannigan (All Saints) The Budmouth boys were strong in this event and Jamie Blair, Ethan Gear, Alex Rogan and Will Jolliffe all duly qualified from their initial groups. They were joined by Ben Hannigan and Hector Knight.

It was Blair, Jolliffe and Hannigan that qualified for the three-way final and this was to prove to be the closest finish of the tournament.

All the players won one game, Hannigan beating Blair, Blair beating Jolliffe and Jolliffe beating Hannigan, so the result went down to countback of the number of sets won.

Hannigan took the title having won one extra set, whilst Blair finished took the runner-up courtesy of scoring one extra point in the matches.

Girls under 16 – winner Lily Cherry (Budmouth) The final of this event was between Budmouth students Lily Cherry and Harriet Pullen with Cherry winning 3-0 to take the title for the third year in succession.

Boys under 16 – winner Ben Graham (Budmouth) Budmouth continue to dominate the boys under 16 event and it was Weymouth League players Tom Cherry, Ben Graham, Moses Lewis, Brad Burroughs and James Green who battled it out for the top places.

It was also great to welcome Thomas Hardy players Alfred Dal Din and Alistair Bates, and they can be encouraged by their first competition, with Dal Din edging out Bates in a marathon five set match to win the Dorchester contest.

The event was finally won by Weymouth Junior League champion, Ben Graham, who did not drop a leg on his way to winning all six of his matches, with James Green beating Tom Cherry for the runners-up spot.

The organisers would like to thank trophy sponsors Dorothy and Heather Dowell, and also All Saints for the use of the playing facilities.

◆ The Weymouth & District Table Tennis League will be running a series of match play sessions, suitable for all abilities, on Monday's and Saturday's for five weeks from June 21st.

Miserly Legg claims 4 for 1 from 10 overs!

WITH STUART BROOM

Premier League 1
STALBRIDGE 143-9 (M.Lawes 3-18) LOST TO WEYMOUTH 144-7 (N.Walton 41) BY 3 WICKETS

Premier League 2
BROADSTONE 2ND 180 ALL OUT LOST TO DORCHESTER 264-6 BY 84 RUNS
DORCHESTER got their season back on track with a convincing win over Broadstone 2nd, with Will Caldwell (81) and Pete Phillips (63) the batting stars in a total of 264-6.

The county town got off to a poor start with Pete Moxom being dismissed without scoring with just four on the board, but Cadwell and Fergus Guppy (31) added 94 for the second wicket.

After the dismissal of Dan Belt (4) and Eamonn Scott (17), Phillips, making his debut for the first team after several excellent performances for the second team, then helped Cadwell take the score beyond 200 by adding 76 for the sixth wicket.

Skipper Belt (4-35) was in devastating form at the start of Broadstone's reply as he ripped out the top order taking 4-8 from four overs to leave them 22-4, before Ian Griffiths (68) and son Ben (39) steadied the boat with a stand of 95.

However when Scott (1-10) had Ian caught by Phillips, the chase diminished, and with Joe Power grabbing 3-27, Dorchester ran out easy winners.

Belt said: "Will Caldwell did just the job we wanted by anchoring the innings for around 40 overs. He played superbly which allowed others to play around him, and his partnership with Pete Phillips was decisive.

"Pete has been scoring well for the seconds for a number of seasons and not really had a chance, but he showed just what a good player he is with an excellent innings.

"Several others also got in and took advantage of the bad balls to reach what was an above average score on a dampish, green wicket.

"In the field we took our catches but it looked like we might have a game on our hands with the Griffith's at the wicket, but after Eamonn got rid of Ian, the spin of Will and Joe Powers pulled the game back our way."

BERE REGIS 90 ALL OUT LOST TO MARTINSTOWN 203 ALL BY 113 RUNS
LOSING the toss Martinstown were asked to bat on a wet, uncovered wicket.

Dave Herbert was the mainstay of the innings with a superb 79 which include two 4s and four 6s.

He had good support from Ed Nichols (25) with whom he added 75 for the second wicket, Tom Adams (18), Stuart Fry (34), and Liam Banfield (11) as they posted a good score of 203 all out.

Bere Regis were in trouble from the start, losing wickets at regular intervals as seamers Chris Read (0-19 from 8), Fry (1-8 from 6) and Matt Rimmer (2-14) tied up the top order.

The introduction of the spinners however broke the back of the hosts as Banfield (2-18) and the impressive Ryan Chase (5-27) saw Bere skittled for just 90, and leave Martinstown top of the league.

Captain Nichols said: "I wouldn't have batted by choice but we decided to make the most of it to give our bowlers something to chase down, and it worked.

"Dave Herbert was very good; hitting everything hard and straight, and there were some good support innings all down the order. My aim was 150 plus with 200 the ideal, so that was a good achievement.

"The seamers kept it very tight early on before the spin of Banwell and Chase took over in the middle overs and prised them out.

"We need however to cut out the number of wides (19) which might be crucial in a tighter game, and I think there were lapses in concentration in the field that we need to address.

"Otherwise it was another good team performance."

County Division Two
CERNE VALLEY 199 ALL OUT BEAT BEAMINSTER 126 ALL OUT BY 73 RUNS

HAVING been asked to bat first on a wet wicket, Cerne found scoring difficult after tight bowling from Beaminster openers Ross Baker and Ade Phillips.

However, catches did not go to hand as Beaminster struggled to take wickets against some defiant batting.

Jack Walklett (3-17) was the pick of the eight different bowlers used as Beaminster attempted to take much needed wickets, and eventually they came through with Indika Nanayakkara (3-27) and Simon Jones (3-38) finding success, although Cerne accelerated the scoring particularly through big hitters George Chubb (53) and David Baney (26).

Several catches were dropped as Cerne were eventually bowled out for an above par score of 199 in the final over.

Beaminster's reply started well through Walklett (17) and Jones (39) who put on 54, although the Cerne bowlers bowled tightly.

Jones' dismissal sparked a collapse as spinner Andrew Mercer bowled an excellent spell of 2-10 off 10 overs, and Pearce Mercer weighing in with 3-31.

With overs running out and wickets falling regularly, it was left to Hugh Rathbone (35) to strike some meaty blows to ensure respectability, but Beaminster were well beaten closing on 126 all out in the 43rd over.

DORCHESTER 2ND 67 ALL OUT LOST TO STALBRIDGE 2ND 69-4 BY 6 WICKETS
THIS game was switched to the artificial pitch because of the recent rain, and winning the toss Stuart Beasley decided to bat.

However, they lost Greg Holland in the first over; run out without facing a ball.

This brought Steve Clifford to the crease for his first game in two seasons but after Cole was bowled on 23-2 for a top score of 17, Clifford soon followed when he was bowled as the ball rolled on to his stumps making a defensive shot.

From then on it was a procession with most losing their wicket to poor decisions, and only Will Channon (12) put up some resistance as Dorchester were dismissed for just 67.

Despite having little to defend Dorchester's spirits were high especially after Beasley took wickets with the first ball of his opening two overs, whilst fellow opening bowler Tom Blair (2-17 off 6 overs), who was later named Durnovaria man of the match, took two wickets in fairly quick succession.

However, the Stalbridge No 5 soon put an end to the match as he raced through to victory.

Beasley said: "It was a very embarrassing and disheartening day as the team know we are better than the way we are playing at the moment.

"Stalbridge's opening bowler was swinging the ball a long way and had our top order in a lot of trouble.

"We are still struggling for experience in the team and we still have a young side, but all we can do is keep the training up and hopefully we will get some wins under our belt very soon."

WEYMOUTH 2ND 78 ALL OUT LOST TO CATTISTOCK 187-7 BY 109 RUNS
IT doesn't appear that Jon Legg misses out too often with the bat, but he sportingly walked caught behind having scored six, despite the umpire not hearing a sound against Weymouth 2nds.

However, he wreaked havoc when the hosts looked to chase 188 for victory with incredible figures of 10-9-1-4 to give Cattistock victory by 109 runs.

Steve Baker (32), Billy Walbridge (36), Bradley Damen (33) and Mark Casely (20) all made useful contributions in the visitor's total of 188-7 which saw Cube Whyte best with the ball for Weymouth with 3-45, backed up by Graham Puckett (2-39).

Tight bowling by Martin Langford (0-9 off 6 overs) and Damen saw Weymouth pinned back to 19-0 off 10 overs.

However it was the introduction of Legg immediately after tea that saw Weymouth's demise, dismissing Puckett (2), Joe Trevett (7) and Tom England (6) in his first spell of seven overs for just one run.

The big hitting Whyte (28), who had been pinned down by 20 consecutive dot balls from Legg, took his revenge on Ryan White (2-28), hitting him for 19 in one over.

But the 15-year-old stayed calm and had the last laugh, having him caught during his other three overs which only cost nine runs.

With Damen, another 15-year-old, weighing in with 4-8 from 5.2 overs, and Legg completing his quote with 1-0 from three overs, Weymouth capitulated for just 78 all out.

Interestingly the combined age of the three wicket takers Legg (20), White and Damen total just 50, which looks good for the future of Cattistock.

County Division Three
BRIDPORT V POOLE 3RD - MATCH CANCELLED

County Division Four
STURMINSTER & HINTON 109 ALL OUT LOST TO PORTLAND RT 2ND 170-7 BY 61 RUNS
PORTLAND RT 2nds completed a comprehensive victory over league leaders Sturminster & Hinton by 61 runs.

Put into bat on a puddling of a wicket they lost the prolific Laurence West (0) in the third over as runs were hard to come by. However Simon Barrett (63 no) and Elliott Sawyer (26) steadied the ship with a fine second wicket partnership containing excellent stroke play with intelligent shot placement against a battling bowling attack that gave very little away.

With the loss of Sawyer, C Midgely (28) joined Barrett and they both punished anything wayward as Portland despite the loss of late wickets posted a challenging 170.

Sturminster's openers Beale (36) and A J Rose (38) started well and just about kept their team up with the run rate in a fine opening stand.

Portland skipper Grant Neven rang the changes bringing on Matt Barrett (1-25) and M Charles (8-1-14-4) and was quickly rewarded with Midgely taking an outstanding catch to dismiss Beale.

The introduction of Simon Barrett (5.1-1-14-4) caused chaos with the remaining batsman's and in tandem with Charles they tore through the rest as Portland produced an outstanding display in the field taking six quality catches in the process.

Neven had plenty to be happy about and said: "To bounce back after our defeat at the hands of Swanage in such a convincing manner was awesome.

"The whole team produced the goods in every department and kept the pressure on the opposition from ball one. Mark and Simon bowled well in conditions that were testing.

"As a team we were 100 per cent on the game and if we can repeat this kind of performance week in week out will be more than a match for most."

County Division Five
WITCHAMPTON 2ND 104 ALL OUT LOST TO CHARLTON DOWN 105-3 BY 7 WICKETS
CHARLTON Down convincingly won a low scoring encounter by seven wickets, with seam bowler James Pretty bowling brilliantly taking 5-18 to skittle the hosts for 104 before a superb unbeaten 66 from Jae Miller steered Down to an easy victory.

The young opening pace duo of Matt Stevens and Nick Voss bowled well with the new ball and it was Matt Stevens impeccable line and length who struck first bowling Neil Hescroft (9) with the score on 22.

Witchampton recovered but when Paul Allaway (29) was leg before to Rich Fagence (2-14) with the score on 54-2, it produced a batting collapse with James Pretty routing the middle order to leave Witchampton reeling on 80-8.

Javed Gill (2-10) then nipped out the tail to bowl Witchampton out for just 104.

Charlton Down knew that batting was not going to be easy but Jae Miller soon had the scoreboard ticking with a six off only the third ball.

Care combined with positive batting was required on a rain affected wicket and a 51 run partnership between Miller and Javed Gill was very timely and took the pressure off the later batsmen.

Gill (20) played some lovely straight drives through the mid on area and Miller (66 not out) was particularly brutal to any ball over pitched, crashing four 6s and six 4s as he and Jack Eveleigh knocked off the remaining runs in only the 17th over.

Captain Pete Tucker said: "The Charlton Down bowlers bowled beautifully on a typical rain affected Dorset wicket.

"Both Stevens and Voss were unlucky not to claim more wickets but had built the pressure for James Pretty to show the art of seam bowling at its very best, and was so well deserved of his first five wicket haul for the club.

"A special mention should also go to our gloveman Rob Deadman who only conceded two byes on a difficult wicket and will have the bruises to prove it.

"Jae Miller batted with great authority, driving and pulling effortlessly to the boundary in his 45 ball innings of 66 and displayed really good shot selection".

MARTINSTOWN 2ND LOST TO CHALKE VALLEY 188-7 BY 131 RUNS
MARTINSTOWN 2nds finally got to play their second game of the league campaign on Saturday.

It started well with an early wicket apiece for Ross Stewart and Tony Jacobs, who both bowled excellent spells.

Chalke Valley's innings was built around an impressive third wicket stand of over 120, which saw off the off some decent bowling from Martinstown, especially Jon Stewart, who would have broken the stand in his first league spell, had a chance not been put down by his father!

Once again the Martinstown batting was poor in reply, with too many batsmen not valuing their wicket highly enough; the notable exception being Ben Wylie, who played well to carry his bat for 30 runs.

Martinstown were however bowled out for a mere 57, a poor total on a good pitch.

County Division Six
BEAMINSTER 2ND 146-9 LOST TO STALBRIDGE 3RD 148-7 BY 3 WICKETS
ON a damp wicket Beaminster were asked to bat, and Dave Penman (13) and David Hall (10) gave them a slow but steady start.

Adam Herring batted sensibly for his 37 whilst Rob Meach hit a quickfire 21 before throwing his wicket away in a disastrous period where Beaminster lost four wickets in successive balls to J Netley (4-18) as they slumped from 120-5 to 120-9.

Despite a last ditch 28 not out from Ryan Sweetman and a healthy 35 extras, Beaminster's innings closed on 146-9.

In reply Beaminster had their hosts in trouble at 29-3, but a fourth wicket stand of 81 between Robertson (49) and Coleman (34) proved the match winning partnership.

Captain Hall said: "There were two turning points in the game; firstly when we lost four wickets in a row.

"Then three disastrous overs where they hit 35 swung the game their way after we had given ourselves a chance."

Sunday Division One
BROADSTONE 98 ALL OUT LOST TO PORTLAND RT 99-7 BY 3 WICKETS

Sunday Division Four
SYMENE 113-8 LOST TO HENSTRIDGE 114-5 BY 5 WICKETS
SYMENE persevered against newcomers Henstridge but never looked likely to secure a victory.

Put into bat steady innings from openers Mark Smith (23) and Nick Skyrme (10) and Phil Hawkins (12) saw them to 58-2 but a brilliant spell of spin bowling from Mark Mitchell who took 6-10 from eight overs saw the hosts capitulate.

Steve Prior with an unbeaten 25 held them together for much of the innings, and a brisk 24 from Oli Lee towards the end saw them use all their overs and deny Henstridge full bowling points.

Lee (2-26) struck in the first over bowling Howell, but 64 from Koshey Isaac held the innings together, although he was dropped four times before Smith took a steeping catch to finally rid him.

Graham Bartlett (2-21) provided the highlight of the afternoon however with another stunning caught and bowled. Spokesman Skyrme said: "We did well to play as the outfield was very damp, but Henstridge who have rejoined this year are far too good for this league and will win it by a mile and progress up a couple of divisions at least.

"Barty's caught and bowled was not quite as good as the other one a couple of weeks ago, but it would have taken his head off if he hadn't caught it!"

Top batting performances:
Will Caldwell (Dorchester) 81; David Herbert (Martinstown) 79; Jae Miller (Charlton Down) 66no; Simon Barrett (Portland RT 2nd) 63no, Pete Phillips (Dorchester) 63

Top bowling performances:
Jon Legg (Cattistock) 4-1 (10-9-1-4); James Pretty (Charlton Down) 5-18; Ryan Chase (Martinstown) 5-27; Bradley Damen (Cattistock) 4-8; Dan Belt (Dorchester) opening spell of 4-8 from four overs; Simon Barrett (Portland RT 2nd) 4-14; M Charles (Portland RT 2nd) 4-14

Devon League
FILLEIGH 114 FOR 2 BEAT UPLYME & LYME REGIS 113 BY EIGHT WICKETS
UPLYME & LYME REGIS travelled to Filleigh grateful that improved weather conditions allowed them only their second game of the season but hit by the late withdrawal of the Whittington brothers from their line-up.

Youngsters Alfie Bellworthy and Tyler Wellman stepped up from the 2nds to replace them.

Around the county skippers winning the toss inserted the opposition on wet wickets and Filleigh were no exception. Uplyme found themselves facing the rapid pace of Zimbabwean Mbofana on a drying wicket. He tied up one end and, as is often the case, the wickets fell to bowlers at the other end.

Only Nick Dinnison (24) and Mark Brimcombe (25) offered any resistance.

At 77 for 8 the Uplyme outfit were in trouble.

Only a late order flurry of runs from bowler Paddy Barraclough (18) brought the total into three figures and ensured a single batting point.

Uplyme needed to take early wickets and their spirits were lifted when young bowler Rhys Davies had Mbofana well caught by Barraclough with the score on 18.

However, opener Harrison and number three Henry dug in and took the score to 86 before skipper Steve Batey bowled Henry.

Harrison however stood firm and saw his side home with eight wickets to spare.

UPLYME & LYME REGIS 2ND XI 137 LOST TO WHIMPLE 2ND XI 138 FOR 4 BY SIX WICKETS.
ON a damp wicket with overcast conditions favourable to bowlers Whimble won the toss and invited Uplyme to bat.

Openers Eddie Clarke and Dave Norman batted watchfully and saw off the opening accurate spell of Whittton and Parker but both perished when they tried to increase the run rate.

However, a middle order partnership of 50 between Derek Wellman (20) and Wesley Holmes (30) raised hopes that a competitive score could be posted.

Wallace Blackmore continued to attack and hit a number of boundaries before he was bowled by Burden for 21.

The resistance then crumbled with the loss of the last four wickets for just six runs leaving Uplyme on 137.

Whimble also started slowly against the accurate bowling of Wesley Holmes and Blackmore and it was Blackmore who made the breakthrough when he trapped van Gudains on the crease for 7.

Colt, Will Marshall took his first wicket for Uplyme when he had McConachie caught by Daley Holmes at point. Daley then came into the attack with his off spin and took two more wickets.

But it was left to the experienced Grant Northover to see Whimble home with an unbeaten 37.

Both Uplyme teams hope to be at full strength on Saturday and bounce back to winning Wednesday is Brewer's day!

BEV Brewer likes playing golf on Wednesday, if Charminster Golf Club's May results are anything to go by.

He won Division One of the medal competition with a nett 70 (88-18-70), beating Jason Franks and Paul Harris who both carded the lowest gross and net scores of the day (86-15-71); Franks beating Harris on countback.

A week later took Division One of the stapleford with 38 points off his 18 handicap, beating Peter Churchill (11) 33pts and Mark Boggust (12) 33pts in second and third.

The Division Two medal was won by Phil Spray (88-19-69) with the lowest gross score, with Phil Abbley (92-22-70) second and Barry Rutherford (90-19-71) third.

The Division Two stableford was won by Bob Irwin (26) 35pts on countback from Andy Draper (22) 35pts second and Paul Comer (19) 31pts in third place.

The Sunday medal for May was won by Peter Churchill. His score of (77-12-65), the lowest gross, headed second placed Jules Walker (85-17-68), with Nigel Barter (89-20-69) third.

Walker (17) went one better in the Sunday stableford, winning it with 44pts, the result of his success a cut of two shots in his handicap, with Boggust (12) 37pts having to be content with runner-up and Nigel Brinsley (15) 37pts third.

Boggust however had tatted success at the end of April when he won a postponed Sunday medal with 80-12-68, the lowest gross round.

Nigel Barter with (90-20-70) was second and Andy Draper (91-19-72) third.

win double

The Three Counties team had two home matches in the month, winning 3-2 against Wincanton, and 3½-1½ against Long Sutton.

The seniors contested four matches. They lost 5-1 away to Somerley Park, before halving their home fixture with Folke 4-4.

They then beat Wincanton 4-2 at home, but the result was reversed when they visited Bridport & West Dorset.

Lyme ladies are leading lights in tough week

THIS week it is the ladies who have come out on top in the league matches.

The championship side managed just two points whilst Lyme 2nds were again without a single point.

The ladies also managed a convincing win in their first round of 'Top Club' against Greenhill's second string.

Lyme were also found wanting in three out of their five friendlies, losing very heavily to Axminster, where we always struggle on their synthetic surface.

We played host to three touring sides over the Bank Holiday which provided captain Phil Stephens with quite a headache trying to secure enough members for all the fixtures.

Weymouth Gig Racing

Weymouth show talent through the age groups

THE depth of Weymouth Rowing Club's personnel was highlighted on Saturday with superb performances throughout the age groups with the juniors giving the team a huge boost at the start with the under 14s winning the 500m race before wins by the mixed team and the Men in the B races.

An unexpected bonus for all the rowers was that the forecasted heavy rain stayed away until the last race of the day.

The event started bright and early with a celebration of junior rowing; with U14s racing over a 500m straight line course, with U16s sprinting over 500m plus the longer kite format course.

In the U14s it was Weymouth all the way, dominating both the 500m races and taking the trophy, whilst the U16s trophy went to local rivals Portland, with an excellent rowing display.

The main event started in bright sunshine and flat seas. There was a very good turnout of clubs with teams from Poole, Clevedon, Lyme Regis, Bristol, Bridport, Hayling Island, Weymouth and the hosts, and favourites, Swanage.

As usual, Swanage set a very long, three-stroke side (left) turn course straight out from the shore off towards Old Harry Rocks, returning parallel to the stunning sandy beach.

First out were the mixed teams, comprising of three men and three women with Weymouth entering two teams in the field of 12 boats. Weymouth stormed ahead, eventually winning by several lengths in their boat Isolde, with the B team chasing home 4th in Penny.

The Veterans races followed; Weymouth fielding two teams in both the women's and the men's races; the Ladies finishing 2nd and 6th, with the Men 3rd and 10th, continuing the strong start.

In the C races the women finished 3rd, with the Men pushing home strongly in 2nd place, having muscled their way past two Lyme Regis boats on the home straight.

With the races coming thick and fast it was the turn of the B squads. A very strong Ladies team raced hard, fighting with, and splitting, the two Bristol teams, to drive home a close second.

■ WINNERS: The Weymouth under 14s team

The Men went one better, dominating the field to come ahead leaving the other teams trailing in their wake to record another strong Weymouth win.

In the fiercely contested 'A' races, Weymouth Ladies took second, with the Men third. Weymouth had finished in the top three in every race; a brilliant achievement.

The home team took the overall team trophy pipping Weymouth by the narrowest margin.

But it was a brilliant days racing, on the beautiful Dorset coast, with Weymouth heading home with three more trophies to add to the one they won at the World Championships.
